GERMANY GERMANY GERMANY GERMANY GERMANY GERMANY

Professional Rising Stars And Youths At The German Open Championships

Part Five : Ann Baker's coverage of the GOC concludes this week

Rising Star Professional Ballroom: 1st in all dances were Oliver and Jasmin Rehder from Germany. They had a very nice shape and frame, showing good use of feet and ankles. It was also easy to warm to them as they had very pleasant attitudes.

2nd were Alexey Troshin and Ekaterina Kirillova from Russia (42234). Together nicely dancing but the man a little arched in his back. However, they were appealing in look and movement.

3rd were Veiko Ratas and Helena Liiv from Estonia (25423). This couple were very expensive in frame and movement. Their weight was nicely into the floor but they seemed to over move in Tango! They showed a smooth Foxtrot with good foot and leg extension.

4th were Andrey and Yuliya Klinchik from the USA (53342). Their Quickstep was very good, light with good foot usage; Andrey was a little arched which affected the elegance and co ordination of movement.

5th were Herman Lak and Michele Gleimann of the Netherlands (34566). They were compact and attractive but more attention is needed on foot usage, particularly in Foxtrot and Quickstep.

6th Sergii Kravchuk and Anastasiya Fedchyshyna from the Ukraine (66655). Danced very much on top of the floor with no depth particularly in Waltz, they have the "look" but now need to work on the production of good movement.

Rising Star Professional Latin: 1st were Daniele Gozzi and Cecilia Giovacchini of the USA. A good-looking couple with impeccable grooming. At times they were convincing but not always consistent as their weight was too high off the floor.

2nd were Alessandro Camerotto and Nancy Berti from Italy. Again not a consistent couple but they showed a lovely Rumba with Nancy cleverly and continuously moving her body. Their technique and body tone needs more work to add greater consistency.

3rd were Markku Hyvarinen and Disa Kortelainen from Finland. They showed good foot and leg action throughout and were very fast and slick. A dramatic couple with a good Jive.

4th were Massimo Sinato and Tatjana Kuschill from Germany. They danced dramatic choreography with sharp accents.

5th were Katsuya and Hiromi Tateisha from Japan. A little sharp for my taste with an overuse of arms. More power required in their legs to develop stronger movement.

6th were Christophe Licata and Anfre Coralie of France. A talented man with great posture, maintaining it on the move particularly in Cha Cha Cha. Can appear a little loose in the other dances. Anfre very attractive and beautifully groomed but needs some work on strength and posture.

Youth Ballroom: So much talent from all the couples but the men show far too much pulling or swaying backwards - losing elegance and quality of movement, the top Amateur and Professional men do not dance this way!

1st in all five dances was Igor Kruglov and Olga Shcherbina from Russia. They were very expensive in style and movement. Their Tango was very fast and covered a lot of floor, even the enormous slide used in their Tango choreography!

2nd in all five dances were Victor Burchuladze and Valeria Agikian also from Russia. A very confident and assured couple. There was a little too much sway backwards from Victor and some of their Foxtrot choreography was out of character for the dance.

3rd were Patrick Rucinsky and Ella Nusenbaum from Canada (53333). This couple were very nice in their production of clean movement and lines, Patrick had rather an arched back which detracted from what otherwise was a lovely performance.

4th were Cristian Radvan and Tatiana Seliverstova from Moldova (34444). They are a lovely musical couple but, for me, too much swooping and pulling backwards from Cristian.

5th were Valeriu Ursache and Tatiana Sceghiriova also from Moldova (47557). A more natural body position from Valeriu with less pulling backwards than the other men. They had a calmer approach, which certainly suited the slower dances. Additionally they also danced a very good Viennese Waltz.

6th were David Manukyan and Karolina Maevskaya from Russia (65676). A little over danced but nevertheless caught the eye for all the right reasons throughout the competition.

7th were Salvio Tubelli and Carman Di Palma from Italy (76765). Not quite as free in movement as the other couples.

Youth Latin: The semi final was just amazing and some very good couples with excellent technique didn't make the final, such was the overall standard.

1st were Evgeny Kuzin and Elina Popova from Russia (11213). Tasteful and classy, their Rumba showed lovely expressive qualities. Evgeny sometimes dances a little high and as yet there was some inconsistency in their overall performance.

2nd were Gomez Lopez and Kristina Joel-Bespechnova from Spain (22121). This couple were the most strong and grounded with recognisable choreography and actions. Sometimes they appeared too aggressive and overdone in their attitude.

3rd were David Manukyan and Karolina Maevskaya from Russia (33342). This was my favourite couple as they were very together, tasteful with some lovely musical touches and feeling.

4th were Victor Burchuladze and Valeria Agikian from Russia (45534). What amazing talent over ten dances. A super costume change for the final with their presentation and grooming the classiest. They have a balletic look and approach; they danced a very good Paso Doble.

5th Nikolay Andrushchenko & Daria Seyko from Russia (54455). Danced very much to the audience with their choreography focused and structured towards them. Unique costuming from Nikolay.

6th in all five dances were Krill Kolpaschikov and Angelina Sibaeva, Russia. A fast, slick performance focusing very much on presentation using complicated choreography.

Five of the six couples in this final were from Russia. We must congratulate them on such a wonderful result.
